NOW IS THE TIME.....

Now is the time to saunder in the desert

See and feel and listen to the beauty and the calm

Now is the time to spend in peace and quiet

With the sahuaros

As they spread their arms in prayer

Through the serene night

Now is the time to appreciate

All that is right

Take time to spend with your friends

And show them your caring and appreciation

Have with them boundless patience

As you visit and you talk and listen

Now is the perfect time

To sing and dance

Or drink and eat with them

Maybe take time for just a little walk

Now also is the time to remember and recall those who have left before us

Though they still are in our soul,

And those friends, never grow old

Now is the time to glance

At the time we still have left

Time to listen to our heart and see whats fair and best

Now is the time to listen to our fellowman

Time to kiss them and to hug them

And to press them to our heart and breast

Take the time to say, "I love you And wish you all God's best.
